

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY
Irma Lerma Rangel
School of Pharmacy

PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES

1. Develop, integrate, and apply knowledge from the foundational sciences to optimize health-related decisions and recommendations at the patient and population level.
(CAPE Sub-domain: Learner)
2. Provide individualized, patient-centered pharmaceutical care.
(CAPE Sub-domain: Caregiver)
3. Manage medication use systems to optimize healthcare outcomes.
(CAPE Sub-domain: Manager)
4. Design health and wellness strategies to prevent and manage chronic diseases.
(CAPE Sub-domain: Promoter)
5. Integrate population-based data into the practice of evidence-based pharmacy.
(CAPE Sub-domain: Provider)
6. Identify, communicate, resolve, and prevent medication-related problems.
(CAPE Sub-domain: Problem Solver)
7. Educate patients, caregivers and professional colleagues using effective communication techniques.
(CAPE Sub-domains: Educator, Communicator)
8. Advocate for healthcare needs on the individual and population-based levels.
(CAPE Subdomain: Advocate)
9. Collaborate as a member of an interprofessional team for team-based, patient-centered care.
(CAPE Subdomain: Collaborator)
10. Demonstrate awareness and sensitivity to cultural and socioeconomic diversity and incorporate the traditions of diverse cultural groups into patient-centered care.
(CAPE Subdomain: Includer)
11. Engage in personal development and professionalism.
(CAPE Subdomains: Self-aware, Professional)
12. Develop new ideas to improve patient care by leading the advancement and achievement of the shared goals of the profession.
(CAPE Subdomains: Leader, Innovator)